

Sarah: "I am very shy."

Mouse: "I go everywhere, but no one sees me,"
(2)

Narrator: piped a squeaky voice. The voice seemed to come from somewhere near the fence at the edge of the yard, but Sarah didn't see anyone.

Let's all ask the hidden animal to come out.

All but Mouse: "COME OUT. COME OUT.
WE CAN'T SEE YOU."

(IF MOUSE HAS BEEN HIDDEN, HE
APPEARS DURING THE NEXT SPEECH
AND SITS IN CHAIR 2.)

Narrator: A small gray animal scurried from the shadows.

All but Mouse: "THERE YOU ARE. YOU'RE MOUSE."

Mouse: "I am hard to see."

Sarah: "You're lucky."